ABSTRACT

The National Council for Resource Development's Task Force on Federal Categorical Funding has investigated and reported the involvement of community colleges in various federal programs. The information in this report, covering sixty-seven federally funded programs, can be used by community college resource development officers in decision-making, in terms of quickly determining the dollars appropriated for a particular program, the dollars obtained by community colleges compared to total dollars appropriated, and comparing the number of awards obtained by community colleges to the number of total awards. As is shown in this document, community colleges are obtaining funding in a variety of programs within agencies and offices other than Health, Education, and Welfare's Office of Education. FY 1976

National Council for Resource Development Suite 410 One Dupont Circle, N.W. Washington, D.C. 20036

PREFACE

As one of its main objectives for 1976, the National Council for Resource Development established a Task Force on Federal Categorical Funding chaired by Dr. Stephen R. Wise, District Director, Resource Development, Florida Junior College at Jacksonville. The Task Force was charged with the responsibility of investigating and reporting the involvement of community colleges in various Federal programs.

The contents of the enclosed report can be used by the community colleges' resource development officers in decision-making in terms of quickly determining the dollars appropriated for a particular program, the dollars obtained by community colleges compared to the total dollars appropriated, and comparing the number of awards obtained by community colleges versus total awards.

The data contained in this report will be used by the Board of Directors of the National Council for Resource Development to provide direction in future legislative and policy-making decisions that affect community college funding. The National Council for Resource Development Board must have empirical demographic data that various agencies have not been responsive to the services which our community colleges can provide. This report is a first step in the data gathering process in this quest for empirical evidence that will document the community colleges' efforts in securing federal categorical funding.

The National Council for Resource Development Federal Categorical Funding Report, will broaden the resource development officers' perspective to programs other than the traditional U.S. Office of Education Title III Developing Institutions, Cooperative Education, Library Resources, Title VI Equipment and the Veterans' Cost of Instruction Programs.

As is shown in this report, community colleges are obtaining funding in a variety of programs within agencies and offices other than Health, Education and Welfare's Office of Education, but more work is needed in order to receive our fair share.

Each year, hereafter, the National Council for Resource Development will provide to its membership an update of the Federal Categorical Funding Report. This report then will show the progress made by community colleges in affecting change in authorizations, appropriations and in the number of awards received by community colleges.

Your comments and suggestions to improve this document will be greatly appreciated.

In addition to the NCRD members, input was obtained from Dr. Marie Martin, Chief, Community College Unit, U.S. Office of Education and Ms. Claire Olson, Assistant Director of Governmental Affairs, American Association of Community Junior Colleges. A speical thanks goes to Stan Patterson, Program Specialist in the Community College Unit, for his many hours of work in calling various program officers and following leads and tips in order to obtain and verify the program information.

The Federal Categorical Funding Task Force first met on May 13, 1976 in Washington, D.C. to determine the magnitude of the tasks which were assigned by the NCRD Board of Directors.

The Categorical Funding Task Force decided that the information to be gathered must be:

(1) Useful,

(2) Practical,

(3) Economically feasible to obtain, and

(4) Easily cross-referenced.

The 1976 Catalogue of Federal Domestic Assistance was used as a point of reference. All programs, with the exception of the programs funded by National Endowment for the Arts and the National Science Foundation contain the Catalogue of Federal Domestic Assistance number. If additional specific program information is needed by the reader, cross-referencing can be quickly accomplished by using the Catalogue of Federal Domestic Assistance, 1976 Edition.

There was no attempt to obtain data from all programs listed in the Catalogue of Federal Domestic Assistance's 1976 edition nor was there any attempt to select all the programs from the Office of Education.

A concerted effort was made to obtain FY 1976 data from as many programs as possible where community colleges readily obtain program support. FY 1975 data was obtained for the Nursing Capitation program, National Endowment for the Arts and Humanities programs simply because the most current data was not available. In addition, data was obtained from various agencies which have not had a reputation for supporting community college grant requests in the past.

It is recommended that the next NCRD Categorical Task Force begin the FY 1977 data collection immediately following the end of the fiscal year which will be October 1, 1977. It has been our experience that as late as September 1, 1976, many of the programs had not completed their grant negotiations and data was not readily available for publication.

It is the hope that this document can be used in succeeding years to measure the effectiveness and tenacity of our community college resource development officers' ability to capture a bigger share of the federal dollars that support post-secondary education. Hopefully, each of the College's federal funding programs capture ratios will be increased by having utilized the data contained in this report to select programs where the chances of funding are the greatest.
